

Six Ways to Improve Your Visual Skills

@hazicsaba

You know your designs are off.
But you don't know why

Sounds familiar?

It takes lots of time,
practice and training
your eyes to become an excellent designer.

Here's 6 ways to speed up the process!

1

Copy GREAT designers

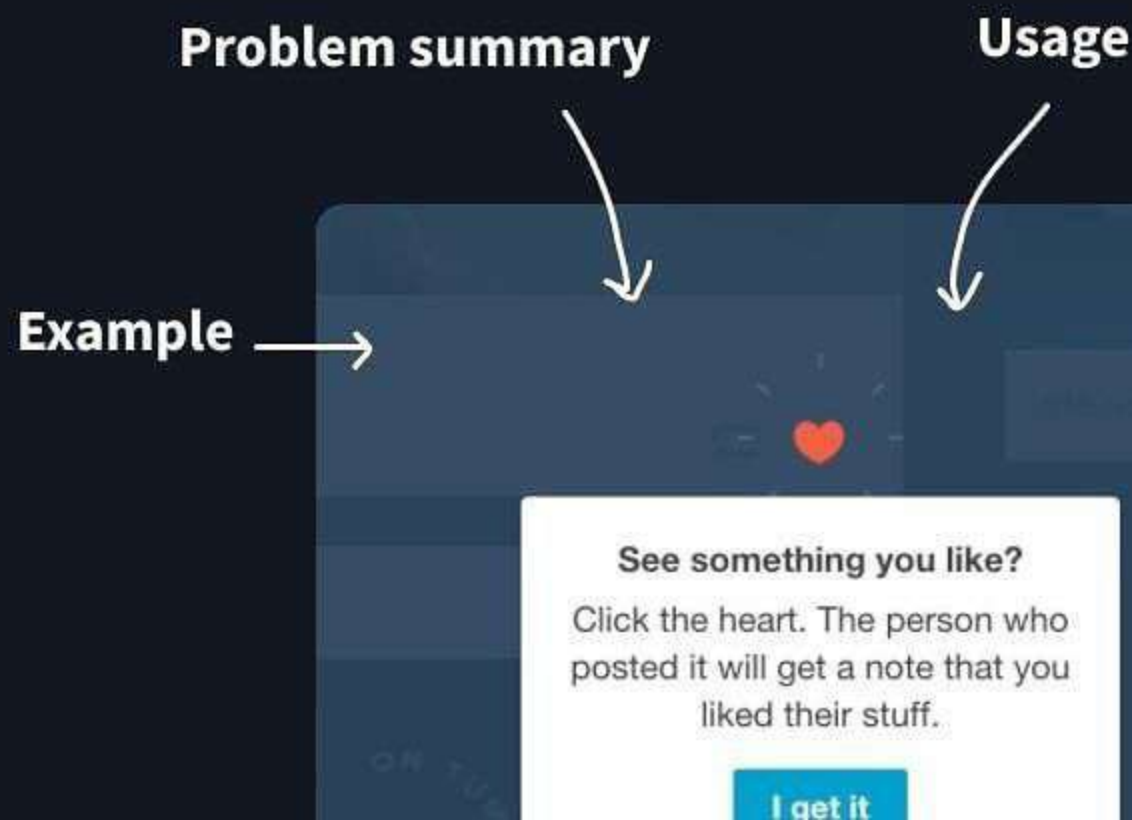

- 👉 Research Behance/Dribbble
- 👉 Collect inspiration
- 👉 Try to copy their typography choices, learn how they use whitespace

2

Study design patterns

- 👉 Check out uipatterns.com
- 👉 Learn the pattern for navigation, onboarding, menu structures, etc.
- 👉 Follow the Dos and Don'ts

3

Study font pairing

👉 Learn which fonts work well together

👉 Check out fontpair.co

5

Do the 100 day UI challenge

- 👉 Signup at dailyui.co
- 👉 Recieve a brief/instruction and design something every day
- 👉 Use your FULL process (user flows, wireframes, functionality maps etc.)
- 👉 Focus on quality (don't worry if you don't complete it in 100 days)

6

Get a mentor

- 👉 A mentor can speed up your learning
- 👉 You don't know what's wrong with your design, but a veteran designer will
- 👉 Look up sites who offer mentoring (e.g. ADPlist, UX Coffee Hours, DesignLab)
- 👉 Focus on quality (don't worry if you don't complete it in 100 days)
